

Farm Service Agency

Bob Andrzejczak

State Executive Director

USDA, Farm Service Agency

Hamilton Square, New Jersey

NEW JERSEY

Bob Andrzejczak was appointed by the Biden Administration to serve as the State Executive Director of the USDA Farm Service Agency (FSA) in New Jersey in February 2022.

Andrzejczak was born and raised in Cape May, New Jersey. He joined the United States Army as an Infantryman in 2005. On his second deployment to Iraq, he was severely wounded when his convoy was attacked for which he was awarded the Purple Heart. Andrzejczak also received Bronze Star with Valor for trying to aid his fellow wounded soldiers as well as the Combat Infantryman Badge. After two years of recovering from his injuries at Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington D.C., Andrzejczak returned home to New Jersey.

Andrzejczak was active in multiple community-based service organizations before being appointed to serve in the New Jersey General Assembly in 2012. While in the Assembly, he served as Chairman of the Agriculture and Natural Resources Committee as well as the New Jersey representative on the Agriculture and Rural Affairs Committee of the Council of State Governments. He was appointed to the New Jersey Senate in 2018 and served until 2019.

Andrzejczak worked on a diversified produce operation throughout middle and high school. His community involvement includes serving as a leader for the Cub Scouts and 4-H Shooting Sports club. He has also been involved in the Veterans of Foreign Wars since 2010.

Andrzejczak and his wife Trisha live in Cape May, New Jersey, with their two children and enjoy camping and outdoor activities.